VINTAGE ARCHITECTURE BUILT TO PERFECTION

Initially built in 1893, this Victorian-style building is a relic of London's glorious past, adorned with double-height pilasters, Corinthian capitals, and an ornamented cornice. An ode to royal history.

The classical façade has been perfectly rebuilt in a marriage of vintage and modern that transcends time. The interiors of ELIE SAAB RESIDENCES are the epitome of contemporary design, with open views of Hyde Park and beautifully branded interiors.
